Plaintiffs' attorneys with knowledge of Plaintiffs' attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and costs.

Persons identified by Defendants and persons discovered to have relevant knowledge throughout this pending litigation, for which Plaintiffs reserve the right to supplement.

(a)(1)(A)(ii) a copy – or a description by category and location – of all documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things that the disclosing party has in its possession, custody or control and may use to support its claims or defenses, unless the use would be solely for impeachment.

Plaintiffs reserve the right to withhold from disclosure any and all documents or things protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work-product doctrine, the investigative privilege, the joint defense privilege, the community of interest privilege and/or the common interest privilege.

Subject to the foregoing, the following documents are relevant and are all within the possession and custody of Defendant: employee pay records, W-2's, personnel records, employee emails and other electronic data, company policy and procedure manuals, time records, company time recording policies and procedures, and documents relating to any investigation by a governmental agency of Defendant's employment practices. Plaintiffs reserve the right to supplement this response.

Please also see documents produced with initial disclosures.

(a)(1)(A)(iii) a computation of each category of damages claimed by the disclosing party—who must also make available for inspection and copying as under Rule 34 the documents or other evidentiary materials, unless privileged or protected from disclosure, on which each computation is based, including materials bearing on the nature and extent of the injuries suffered.

Plaintiffs are financial specialists who were non-exempt, hourly employees and were denied overtime compensation for hours worked in excess of 40 hours in a work week and were not paid for “off the clock” work. Further, plaintiffs and opt-in plaintiffs were not paid at time and one-half their regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours in a work week.

Unpaid wages: Will supplement

Calculated as: 1 ½ times regular pay rate for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours per work week

Liquidated damages: Will supplement

Calculated as: two times the unpaid wages

Attorneys’ fees: Will supplement

Calculated as: a reasonable amount not to exceed 40% if there is no appeal and 45% if there is an appeal

Litigation expenses (including but not limited to expert fees) and costs of court: Will supplement

Calculated as: Will supplement

Pre- and post-judgment interest: maximum amount permitted by law

Calculated as: maximum amount permitted by law

(a)(1)(A)(iv) for inspection and copying as under Rule 34, any insurance agreement under which any insurance business may be liable to satisfy all or part of a possible judgment in the action to or indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment.

None, other than those produced by Defendants, if any.

26(a)(2)(A)(iv) Experts

The identity of any witness it may use to present evidence under Federal Rule of Evidence 702, 703 and 705.

The above counsel will testify regarding Plaintiffs' reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation expenses. They will consider applicable factors in State Bar Rule 1.04 and the pertinent Johnson factors as described in Heidman v. County of El Paso, 171 F.3d 1038, 1043 (5th Cir. 1999) or subsequent cases. At this time, it is premature for counsel to opine as to the total reasonable fees or expenses, as work is not complete. It is anticipated that they will opine that a reasonable hourly rate for their work is $475 per hour on a lodestar basis, plus an appropriate multiplier based on factors described in the case law. Counsel may rely on, and submit, time records and expense detail redacted for privileged information, as well as pleadings, motions and responses, correspondence and other materials exchanged and/or filed, and tasks performed in the case.

Please see the curriculum vitae for the above individuals attached as Exhibits A -C respectively, and Ms. Wills' representative FLSA case list attached as Exhibit D.

Plaintiffs reserve the right to object to the introduction into evidence at trial of any response, document or other thing served upon Defendants contained within or referenced in Plaintiffs' Disclosures.

Dated: January 14, 2013
Houston, Texas
